Thought Questions: (Give some thought and study to the following questions and be prepared to share your ideas in class)

1. What is your understanding of what Jesus said in 5:19?
2. Why is 5:37-39 such a sober warning to we Christians today?
3. In 6:29, Jesus speaks of believing in "him whom" God has sent as a work of God. How does this affect the argument that some people make that salvation is only by faith and not by works?
4. See 7:12. If Jesus was (is) not the divine son of God, and the Christ, would the statement that he was a good man be appropriate? Please explain why?
5. After reading what Jesus said in 7:38, 39, what is the connection between living water and the Holy Spirit?
