Thought Questions: (Give some thought and study to the following questions and be prepared to share your ideas in class)

1. What was the reason why Paul was a prisoner and found himself on his way to appear before Caesar?
2. In 27:20, the writer speaks about losing "our" hope (or, "all hope that we") of being saved. What does the personal pronoun tell us?
3. An angel of the Lord reassured Paul that he and all who were with him would be saved from the storm at sea (see 27:23-26). Does God give us any assurances concerning the many storms we face?
4. The snake incident on the island of Malta led the people to believe that Paul was a god (28:6). Why are people more easily convinced of that which is false than the truth?
5. What is meant by the statement (28:31) that Paul was proclaiming the "kingdom of God" as well as "teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ?"
